Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-26, 29-34, and 37-45 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, the phrase "a temperature of the fuel/air mixture in the combustion chamber can be set to at least over 80% and up to at most 98% of a spontaneous ignition temperature", Claim 2, the phrase "the temperature of the fuel/air mixture in the combustion chamber can be set to at most 85%, preferably at most 87% of the spontaneous ignition temperature", and Claim 3, the phrase "the temperature of the fuel/air mixture in the combustion chamber can be set to at most 95%, preferably at most 93% of the spontaneous ignition temperature" is indefinite because the relationship of temperatures is not based on a specific known standard for the measurement temperature related to engine and since there is more than one known standard of temperature (e.g. F, C) which would result in different absolute temperature corresponding to the specified range.

The claims not specifically mentioned are indefinite since they depended from one of the above claims.

3. Applicant's arguments filed June 22, 2006 have been fully considered. There is no prior art applied in the action at this period in view of uncertainty as to the scope of the claims. Claims 1-26, 29-34, and 37-45 are pending.
